

*N*estling amongst the wooded hills of the Vale of Clwyd, secluded amongst a mass of landscaped rhododendron colour, Woodlands Hall is only 20 minutes from Chester's busy centre, and the ideal place for both business and pleasure. It is a perfect meeting place or a base when working locally, and ideal for family holidays, from a weekend break to a complete holiday.

Built in the 1870's, Woodlands Hall is a recent addition to the Haulfryn Group who have completed the extensive refurbishment started by the previous owners. It retains the feel of more leisurely times with exquisite wooden wall panelling and imposing fireplaces that lend an air of sophistication and luxury.

There's a choice of dining available, including the welcoming bar with its own snack menu, the relaxed conservatory or the more formal dining room. In addition there's a snooker room with a full size table, a fitness suite and sauna for exercise and relaxation, as well as an outdoor tennis court, all forming part of this popular Haulfryn holiday home location.

*W*oodlands Hall has six generous double bedrooms and one single room, each with elegant en-suite facilities. All our rooms have flat screen colour TVs with a choice of terrestrial and free-view stations, direct dial telephones and Wi-Fi internet connection as well as the usual tea and coffee making facilities and trouser press. Bathrooms have fluffy Egyptian cotton towels and a hair dryer.

Tower

A strikingly elegant room with a distinctly Edwardian feel being highlighted by the magnificent wood panelling. The tall, ogive window, reaching almost to the pitched ceiling, lets light flood in, accentuating the exceptional features of this wonderful room. The Tower room has an en-suite bathroom.

Shakespeare

Embellished by the majestic fireplace with its impressive over mantle, this is a comfortably sized double bedroom with tall windows letting in plenty of light. There is also a naturally lit en-suite bathroom.

Our Rooms

Wagner

Beethoven

Mozart

Brahms

A room full of character, Brahms almost hides under Woodlands Hall's eaves, the beams supporting the pitched ceiling with the low, leaded window lending immense charm to this double bedroom. Brahms has an en-suite bath and shower room.

Beethoven

A spacious double bedroom, the striking Gothic arch towards the window makes a separate bay at the far end of the room, the perfect place to sink into a comfortable armchair with a good book, with plenty of light from the leaded windows. Beethoven has an en-suite bath and shower room.

Wagner

A comfortable double bedroom with charming leaded windows tucked under the unusual pitching of the ceiling. Warm and inviting, Wagner has an en-suite shower room.

Mozart

A quiet, almost dignified double bedroom that feels homely the moment you enter. This is a room full of understated elegance, welcoming and warm; a room to hurry back to. It has its own en-suite shower room.

Facilities

Fitness Room

Snooker Room

Tennis Court

*A*fter a long day there's nothing better than to be able to relax in one of our comfortable armchairs and enjoy a long drink from the bar. There's a comforting sense of peace at Woodlands, mixed in with that sense of grandeur that makes staying in a fine hotel so enjoyable.

Eating here is an absolute pleasure. Choose to dine in the conservatory or the dining room, or bar meals are available too, and there's the opportunity to retire for a game of billiards or snooker after dinner if you choose.

Other facilities include a fitness suite with all the equipment you could need to keep the kilos at bay, and there's a sauna available too, plus outside you'll find a tennis court.

For private events such as family occasions or business meetings there's a separate function suite that is admirably suited for use for small conferences for up to 60 delegates.

Out and About

The quiet and picturesque market town of Ruthin lies just a couple of miles from Woodlands Hall, with the historic city of Chester just 20 minutes away. Within easy reach are the fabulous beaches of the North Wales coast and the mountains of Snowdonia. With so much to enjoy, it's no wonder that so many families choose Woodlands Hall as the ideal base for their holiday.

Within 10 miles, you'll find the famous Llangollen Canal and the awesome Pontcysyllte Aqueduct (a proposed World Heritage site), the Llangollen Railway, and opportunities for many activities including rafting, canoeing, kayaking, climbing, abseiling, and gorge walking.

And there's more! In little over half an hour's drive from Woodlands Hall you can be enjoying the fabulous beaches of North Wales, with the challengingly named Penmaenmawr being one of the finest beaches in North Wales.
